Chief, Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The Director, Vermont Service Center, denied the nonimmigrant petition. The matter is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be rejected.

An appeal must be filed with the office where the unfavorable decision was made within 30 days after service of the decision. 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(2)(i). If the decision was mailed, the appeal must be filed within 33 days. See 8 C.F.R. § 103.5a(b).

The record indicates that the director issued the decision on November 12, 2010. It is noted that the director properly gave notice to the petitioner that she had 33 days to file the appeal. The petitioner dated the appeal December 31, 2010, or 49 days after the decision was issued, and it was received by U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) on January 5, 2011, or 54 days after the decision was issued. Accordingly, the appeal was untimely filed.

The regulation at 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(2)(v)(B)(1) states that an appeal which is not filed within the time allowed must be rejected as improperly filed.

The regulation at 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(2)(v)(B)(2) states that, if an untimely appeal meets the requirements of a motion to reopen or a motion to reconsider, the appeal must be treated as a motion, and a decision must be made on the merits of the case.

An untimely filed appeal must meet specific requirements to be treated as a motion. The regulation at 8 C.F.R. § 103.5(a)(2) requires that a motion to reopen state the new facts to be provided in the reopened proceeding, supported by affidavits or other documentary evidence. Furthermore, 8 C.F.R. § 103.5(a)(3) requires that a motion to reconsider must state the reasons for reconsideration and be supported by any pertinent precedent decisions to establish that the decision was based on an incorrect application of law or USCIS policy.

The director denied the petition determining that the petitioner had not submitted any initial evidence or supporting documentation. On appeal, the petitioner submits a statement but still does not submit any initial evidence or supporting documentation. Upon review, the petitioner has not established that her late appeal meets the requirements of a motion to reopen or reconsider. As the petitioner has not established that the director's decision was based upon an incorrect application of law or policy, and has failed to submit any evidence to overcome the director's ground for denial, the petitioner's untimely filed appeal does not meet the requirements for a motion to reopen or reconsider and must be rejected.

The burden of proof in these proceedings rests solely with the petitioner. Section 291 of the Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1361. The petitioner has not sustained that burden.

ORDER: The appeal is rejected.
