IN RE:

Applicant:

APPLICATION:

Application for Temporary Protected Status under Section 244 of the Immigration and Nationality Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1254

ON BEHALF OF APPLICANT:

Self-represented

INSTRUCTIONS:

This is the decision of the Administrative Appeals Office in your case. All documents have been returned to the office that originally decided your case. Any further inquiry must be made to that office.

Robert P. Wiemann, Chief
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The application was denied by the Director, California Service Center. It is now on appeal before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO). The appeal will be summarily dismissed.

The applicant claims to be a citizen of El Salvador who is seeking Temporary Protected Status (TPS) under section 244 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1254.

The director denied the application on the ground that the applicant did not file her TPS application during the initial registration period for El Salvadoran nationals, in accordance with 8 C.F.R. § 244.2(f)(1), and failed to establish that she was eligible for late TPS registration under any of the criteria enumerated at 8 C.F.R. § 244.2(f)(2).

The applicant filed a timely appeal, but does not state any reasons for the appeal on the Form I-290B and indicates that she is not submitting a separate brief and/or evidence in support of the appeal.

An officer to whom an appeal is taken shall summarily dismiss any appeal when the party concerned fails to identify specifically any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact for the appeal. See 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(1)(v).

Inasmuch as the applicant has failed to identify specifically any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact in this proceeding, the appeal must be summarily dismissed.

The record includes a report from the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), based on the applicant's fingerprints, indicating that the applicant was arrested on June 2, 2003, by the police department in Austin, Texas, on a charge of "criminal trespass inhabitation / superfund site." In any future proceedings before Citizenship and Immigration Services (CIS), the applicant must submit a final court disposition of that arrest.

As always in these proceedings, the burden of proof rests solely with the applicant. See section 291 of the Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1361.

ORDER: The appeal is summarily dismissed.
